Burdock Blood Bitters

Cures scrofula, erysipelas, salt rheum, pimples and all humors of the blood. Cures dyspepsia, liver complaint, billiousness constipation, dropsy, kidney complaints, headache, nervousness, female weakness and general debility. *

A General Defeated,

A Mrs. J. G. Robertson writes: "I was suffering from general debility, want of appetite, constipation, etc., so that life was a burden; after using Burdock Blood Bitters I felt better than for years. I cannot praise your Bitters too much. *

What's in a Name?

The virtue of most of the patent medicines with which the market is flooded lies in the name, but the virtues of Burdock Blood Bitters lie in the fact that they cleanse the blood of impurities, and cure dyspepsia, billiousness and indigestion. Price $1 00, trial bottle 10 cents. *

Virtue Acknowledged.

Mrs. Ira Mullholland, Oakville, writes: 'For several years I have suffered from oft recurring billious headaches, dyspepsia, and complaints peculiar to my sex. Since using your Burdock Blood Bitters I am entirely relieved. *

The First Step.

Self-respect is the first step in all reformations; and when your blood is laden with impurities and you are suffering from billiousness or dyspepsia, the first step to a radical cure is to take Burdock Blood Bitters. Price $1 00, trial size 10 cents.

C. R. HALL, Grayville, Ill., says:—"I have sold at retail price since the 4th of December last 156 bottles of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil guaranteeing every bottle. I must say I never sold a medicine in my life that gave such universal satisfaction. In my own case, with a badly ulcerated throat, after a physician penciling it for several days to no effect, the Eclectric Oil cured it thoroughly in twenty-four hours, and in threatened croup in my children this winter it never failed to relieve almost immediately. 44

FOR colds, coughs, asthma, in short for any and all derangements of the lungs or respiratory organs, or for any complaint tending towards consumption, nothing is so reliable as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. In all ordinary cases it is a certain cure, and it affords sure relief even in advanced stages. *

NOT the least important feature in Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, is the Comfort, Buoyancy, and Vigor which is inspired by its use, as the patient recovers from sickness. No other preparation known contains the same potent and direct effect on the nervous system. 1

LUXFORD'S FRESH AND RELIABLE SEEDS AND PLANTS are now ready. For sale by Neufelder & Ross, Government street, McBroom, Yates street, Shore & Co. Douglas street. *

SPORTS.—H. Mansell's is the place to get the running shoe. *

Burdock Blood Bitters

Cures all diseases of the blood, liver and kidneys, female complaints, nervous and general debility, and builds up the entire system when broken down by disease. *

IMPENDING.

The House will expire by effluxion of time on the 30th of June, less than sixty days from the date of this newspaper. According to constitutional usage and precedent an election should be held before the expiration of that date, the writs returned and the new House, practically, come into existence. It is a principle as old as constitutional law itself that the Crown never dies. It is always supposed to have an existence. If the QUEEN were to die to-morrow ALBERT EDWARD would be sworn in as King as quickly as he could be reached by the Lord Chancellor and an interregnum of an hour or two would be bridged without a word of comment or a single complaint of irregularity. In Great Britain a parliament is either in existence or a proclamation ordering a new election must be issued. The Crown is supposed to have either a parliament or to have one in course of election. The same rule is followed in Canada. The same Gazette that contains a proclamation of dissolution contains another proclamation authorizing the election of a new parliament. The rule was observed here in 1875 and in 1878 and it is not at all likely that it can be avoided now. We doubt the constitutional right of the ministers to carry on the government without a parliament. There is no provision in the constitution that will permit them to do so. The form of government is responsible. The ministry are appointed by virtue of their being members of the House. If there be no House, whence comes the power to hold their portfolios? The lieut.-governor, as is well known, can only accept the advice of his constitutional members; but if ministers do not "constitutionally" hold their seats, can his honor be expected to receive and act upon their advice? It might be—indeed, is more than likely—that a mojority of the ministers, upon an appeal to the country, would lose their seats; at least, a man does not need to be either a prophet or the son of a prophet to understand that the present government will be largely in the minority in the next House; and it would be a very absurd thing indeed to ask his honor to take their advice until, after a general election shall have been held, they should establish their right to give such advice. Suppose, again, a sudden emergency, which required immediate legislation, were to ariseand no House to be in existence, the complications and delays that would result would be disasterous. The lieut.-governor has a constitutional right to demand a House; and there is every reason to believe that the government, however distasteful the verdict of the polls might be to them, would be forced to accord it. They who talk about the elections being put off until the Fall have not studied the question. The opinion of constitutional men is that within sixty days the new election will be called. The government will try and hold on to their seats as long as possible; but constitutional precedent and usage will bear the constitutional violators down and force them to do their duty. A general election is impending. In the districts everywhere the electors should organize. The government is always organized. Just now it is an organized conspiracy against the public interests and the people must break down that conspiracy by bringing forward and electing thoroughly independent and responsible men. There should be no split tickets; no encouragement extended to candidates upon whom votes would be wasted and who in standing would only serve to divide the strength of an otherwise compact and irresistible opposition whose sole aim it will be to scatter and destroy a government that has done nothing to advance the interests of the country and whose general policy has proved most injurious. Every reasonable, thinking man sees that an immediate election is imperative if the province is to take advantage of the changes that are going on about us.

Committees should be formed without delay both on Mainland and Island. Intending candidates should be brought forward and preparations made to insure a complete victory over a venal and indolent government. The people should work unceasingly to accomplish the one great end of not only scotching but killing a ministry that held power during the late session by the vote of the Speaker—and such a Speaker—in opposition to the will of the people. From Victoria to Cariboo electors should organize for action immediately. No time should be lost.

WHO?

There is little doubt now about it. What is whispered in Victoria is openly spoken at Ottawa. The attorney-general of the province is a candidate for the vacant position of judge of the supreme court. His friends at the capital are urging his "claims"—which are dubious, at best—and Sir JOHN MACDONALD is understood to be friendly to the enterprise of hoisting the premier to the Bench. What will be his gain will, undoubtedly, be the country's loss; but political necessity brooks no obstacle, halts at no exigency. Men who in private life strain at a gnat in politics swallow a camel on the half shell without a grimace. Mr. WALKEM may prove something more than a camel. He may turn out to be as great an elephant in Dominion hands as JUMBO in the hands of the zoological garden directors. But that is neither here nor there. Should the Dominion gather him in may good luck go with him. What the province is most interested in knowing is, who will succeed the departing premier? Will it be the immaculate HUMPHREYS, whose ill-regulated volubility required a gag before he was admitted to a seat in the holy of holies at James Bay? The minister of finance, whose maladministration of public affairs formed the theme of debate during the late session? The oily GALBRAITH, who gammoned the government into allowing him to walk away with the timber hints of Kicking Horse Pass in return for his support? Or COWAN the Silent, whose oratory has lain dormant during his seven years of service and whose serene countenance faithfully mirrors the mighty thoughts that struggle beneath the surface to gain utterance. Which of these worthies will be the fortunate man? To the country it matters little who may carry off the prize, as its retention would be a matter of a very short time. Neither of the honorables named would have a large following. HUMPHREYS clucks through the House with one half-plucked "chicken" to respond. BEAVEN claims two members who respond to the crack of his whip. GALBRAITH, since CHARLEY GALLAGHER'S seat has been pulled away, follows his own shadow; and COWAN is such a negative character that although all are his friends he could not place his hand upon a single supporter. The country is hard up for wood from which to construct a cabinet. There is not a sound stick of timber on the government side of the House that could be relied on for the purpose. The country must be appealed to to supply the necessary material and it is safe to predict that not ten members who supported the existing government during the recent struggle will find the number of their mess when the muster roll is called next winter.

THE TRADES.

What the Busy Workers are Getting.

As almost every description of labor is in demand both in Victoria and throughout the Province a schedule of prices at the present time will be an item of useful information here, in the eastern provinces, the neighboring States and other countries: Bricklayers and stone masons receive from $3 to $4 per day, and their laborers $2; carpenters and joiners from $2.50 to $3; ship carpenters and caulkers $4; cabinet makers and upholsterers $3; painters $3 with a demand for $3.50; shoemakers from $2 to $3; tailors $2.50 and tailoresses from $1 to $1.50; bakers $65 per month with board and lodging; butchers (cutters) from $75 to $100, and slaughterers $75 per month; cigar-makers from $2.50 to $4 per day and boys as strippers, &c., from $2 to $5 per week. White cigarmakers are in demand in the only cigar factory in the city, namely, that of Kurtz & Co., where white labor is exclusively employed. Printers 40 cents a thousand ems. Machinists, moulders, pattern and boiler-makers and blacksmiths are getting from $3 to $3.50 per day; in a few exceptional cases of pattern makers and blacksmiths $4 are paid. Wagon makers $3.50; tinsmiths, plumbers and gas fitters about the same. Laborers of all sorts command $2 per day and upwards and are much in demand on the railroad works and elsewhere in the province.

An Earthquake.

At 10:45 p.m. on Sunday night the shock of an earthquake caused doors, windows and crockery in this vicinity to rattle and somewhat alarmed new residents who are not accustomed to such violent sublunary emotions. The movement seemed to be from northeast to southwest. In some instances crockery was thrown from shelves. In one house, at least, a candle was thrown from a chair and extinguished. Some persons who were walking across the floor and others who were sound asleep did not feel the shock in the least. It is mentioned as a remarkable circumstance that a few minutes before the shock occurred dogs were heard to howl dismally. The barometer at 11:15 p.m. was 31.07; thermometer 64°.

In the district, some of the houses were shaken up at a livelier rate than was pleasant for the occupants. Mr. William Pollard's family sought safety by flight amid the fall of plaster, the rattling of casements and the creaking and groaning of the timbers. The house was damaged to the extent of $50. This same house was shaken severely by the earthquake of August, 1880. It is accounted for by the fact that it is built on a rock. We have always believed that the man whose house stands on a rock occupies a pretty sure foundation.

AMATEUR BRASS BAND.—The young men comprising this band are practising with praiseworthy assiduity and punctuality under the very able leadership of Professor Leronde. Polkas, waltzes, schottisches and a number of popular airs are executed with considerable exactness and, for such young practitioners, with no little taste; manifesting not only careful teaching on the part of the leader, but great aptitude and taste for music on the part of the performers. They number more than 20 pieces and with one or two exceptions, all were quite new to their instruments when the band was organized some six months ago. For the short time that they have been practising their music is excellent and all concerned deserve every encouragement that can be extended toward them.

THE "May Flower B. B. Club" held their first meeting this year last evening when the following officers were elected for the ensuing season: F. W. Jesse, President; G. N. Gowen, Secretary and Treasurer; T. H. Baker, Field Captain. Practice will commence immediately.

THE Western Slope will arrive via Nanaimo this morning.

What Some People Say.

That one pin will close your purse; but it requires two to close your mouth.

That the clown plays the fool for want of money; but there are many who do it for want of wit.

That a resident of the suburbs, who searched the yellow-covered literature of the departments in vain for a report from the minister of finance and agriculture, actually sent that dignitary on Saturday the following startling information:—"Sir—My wif had a large Cat that dyd. Being a torture shell and a grate favorit, she had him berrid in the Guardin, and for the sake of inrichment of the Mould. I had the carkis deposited under the roots of a Gosberry Bush. The frute was up till that time of the perfectly smooth kind. But the nex Season's Frute after the Cat was berried, the Gosberrys was all hairy, and what is stranger still the Caterpillers on the same Bush was all hairy likewise."

That the minister of finance and agriculture referred the note to the provincial secretary who represents an agricultural district and is supposed to know all about farming. "Tom" returned it with the pithy remark "Blessfino."

That it is strange how little one feels the burthen he puts on the shoulders of others. Take the premier and the provincial secretary: They pile the taxes on the people's backs and as they have no property of their own to be taxed they never feel the burthen the least bit.

That a speculator who has been there gives this advice: "Don't put your money in any of the mushroom cities of the west. They come up in the night and there is no telling what moment they may be deserted, the grass starting in the streets and the buildings crumbling to dust Look at Cheyenne. Only a short time ago it had a church and fourteen concert saloons, and now there are nothing left but seven churches. All the saloons have vanished."

That Mr. Bull, the energetic road-tax collector, is pushing his duties in a lively manner.

That "Oh! it's so warm," said every one on Sunday. The same people on Saturday ejaculated, "Oh! it's so cold." It is difficult to please everybody, a fact the clerk of the weather ascertained long ago.

That coughs, colds and influenzas are in fashion.

That a lady desires to divide six roses among five girls so that each girl can wear one at the next bachelor's ball. How can she do it without cutting one of the girls in two?

That the conversazione on Thursday evening will be for the benefit of the P. O. Home, a very deserving institution.

That Ben. Butler says the Chinese are draining the United States of $45,000,000 in gold yearly.

That a friend remarked yesterday that he had seen a flower from the spirit-land. Perhaps it was a rum-blossom on the tip of a drunkard's nose.

That all the B. A.'s and M. A.'s connected with the educational establishment except the superintendent of education will be required to come up for examination in June. Is not this an unjust discrimination?

That what has the poor superintendent done that he will not be allowed to prove his qualifications for the position he holds?

That the indecent letter-writing matter was before the school trustees yesterday. It is said the affair will come before the courts on a writ of certiorari.

That the sprinkler, when needed yesterday, was non est. The cause was a burst in the water main which was repaired last night.

That a stranger entering the town a week ago was paralyzed at the spectacle of so many men on Government street arrayed in handsome new suits. His surprise was overcome when he was told they were legislators who having completed their labours had just been paid off at the treasury.

The Great Sheridan.

Mr. W. E. Sheridan and his talented combination will arrive here to-day and the company will make their appearance to-night. The entertainment will be one of the most chaste and beautiful the people of Victoria have ever enjoyed. It will commence with a selection from "Hamlet" with Mr. Sheridan as the pale Dane, Miss Nellie Holbrook as the Queen, and Miss Lou Davenport as Ophelia. Then will succeed a Bouquet of Poesy in which Mr. Hawley Chapman will give "The Water Mill," Mr. Sheridan the soul-stirring "Dream of Eugene Aram;" Miss Nellie Holbrook will read "Billie's Rose," and Mr. Hawley Chapman will render "Mahs'r John." The whole to conclude with the beautiful comedy in four acts entitled, "Still Waters Run Deep," Mr. Sheridan as John Mildmay and Miss Holbrook as Mrs. Sternhold. On Wednesday evening, "Othello" and "Delicate Ground." Seats may be secured at T. N. Hibben & Co's.

A LESSON FOR YOUNG MEN. — "How charmingly beautiful the dry goods are this year, are they not?" said Algernon to Isabella last evening as he sat in the parlor "making talk." "Yes, indeed, they are beautiful; but there are some things I would prize more than dry goods." "If I should offer—offer—to"— "I don't know what ma would say to an offer from you." And she blushed beautifully. Algernon, who was only about to offer to conduct her to the WHITE HOUSE, was entrapped nicely. No cards.

WEEKLY COLONIST.—The edition of The Colonist will be ready for distribution today. This valuable publication is rapidly increasing in circulation and influence. It now penetrates to every portion of the province and is welcomed everywhere as the most reliable medium of intelligence in the Pacific province. Price only one bit; by the year $3.

A BREAK IN THE WATER MAIN.—A water works pipe in Foote's valley near the Royal Oak broke yesterday. Prompt measures were taken by the engineer to repair the damage, and to-day the sprinkler will be again at work. Sundry enquiries were made yesterday afternoon as to what had become of this necessary adjunct to the comfort of everybody in the business portions of the city. The break in the main accounts for its stoppage.

THE ORILLA PACKET:—Mr. James Bow has sold his residence, in South Orilla, with six acres, to Patrick Keenan, of Brook. We understand that Mr. Keenan will come here to reside. He is a gentleman of considerable means. Mr. Bow will make his home in British Columbia.

ACCEPTED.—Mr. Ramford's challenge for a 25-mile go as you please race has been accepted. H. Neaves picks up the gauntlet in this morning's Colonist.

THE Princess Louise will leave at one o'clock to-day for New Westminster with a full freight.

DRUNK AND DISORDERLY.

A. d. & d. failing to appear forfeited his bail of $5. An Indian paid his five shillings for a similar offence.

SANITARY CASES.

A party appeared to state that a nuisance had been ordered to be abated before a summons had been received. A promise was given to the court that the further requirements of the sanitary committee should be attended to during the week. Case accordingly adjourned till Friday.

Another similar charge was also adjourned till Friday.

UNLAWFUL POSSESSION.

A Hydah Indian was discharged for having gin in his possession as his evidence was required in the next case of

SUPPLYING AN INTOXICANT.

J. J. McDonald was charged with supplying the above Indian with the gin in question,

Mr. G. Weston in defence pleaded guilty on behalf of the prisoner and hoped that under the circumstances the sentence would be as lenient as possible.

Supt. O'Connor stated that the prisoner was an inveterate whiskey seller and had been before the court no less than ten times. He was a strong, able bodied man but would not work.

Sentenced to three months' imprisonment with hard labor, or to pay a fine of $50.

THE KNIFE STEALING CASE.

The prisoner Mellon disputed the evidence of a Johnson St. baker in every particular with regard to the knife in question in a very boisterous and unruly manner.

Prisoner wished to address the Court; but when informed that it might be used in evidence against him at his trial he declined doing so.

His Honor after giving the prisoner a severe lecture on his course of conduct, sentenced him to four months' imprisonment with hard labor on the charge of vagrancy. On the knife stealing charge, he did not think it advisable to trouble the grand and petitt jury with such a trivial matter. He would therefore overlook the impertinence manifested by the prisoner and dismiss it.

GOING EAST.—Revs. Turner & Chappell are going east overland from the upper country, the former to Ireland on a visit and the latter to Prince Edward's Island on account of his health; the arduousness of his charge in Nicola Valley, Okanagan and Cache Creek being altogether too much for his constitution which is not naturally robust.

INSTITUTE MEETING.—The numerous subscribers to the Mechanics' Institute reading room and library will bear in mind that the annual meeting for the election of officers and reception of report of last year's committee takes place this evening at 8 o'clock in the reading room of the Institute. All interested in the success of such a useful institution should make a point of being in attendance.

Nicholas Meibers, an old man, bought a quart of beer at Decatur, Ind., and sat down in the saloon to drink it, all by himself. Jonas Toomey told him that such conduct was unsocial and impolite; that he ought to treat all the persons present. Meibers made no reply, but continued drinking his beer, until Toomey brutally murdered him.

While a funeral service was being held in a St. Louis church the body of a murdered infant was laid within the doorway by some unknown person. It is surmised that the mother, fearful of detection, yet desiring a religous rite for her baby, accomplished her wish as nearly as possible by having the remains placed where they were found.

STAPLETON, Staten Island, April 3.—Postmaster John Bale was found dead in the street yesterday morning. He had a large amount of money and stamps on his person, which were untouched. It is supposed that he died of apoplexy. His wife at midnight was awakened by a dream that her husband was in danger and rose and prayed for him until 4 o'clock a.m., when tidings of his death reached her.

OUR PARIS LETTER.

(Regular Correspondence of The Colonist.)

PARIS, March 18th.

Those interested in commercial treaties must not be too sanguine at the efforts of the resurectionists to reopen official negotiations. The difficulty has passed out of the domain of political economists and business men; it is now a matter of parliamentary parties when the protectiontionists have the abiss hand. To supersede the specific for the ad valorem duties means bringing in a bill, carrying it through both houses, and opening again the debate between free trade and protection. The country remains profoundly indifferent to the whole subject; no cabinet would take up the question by staking its existence on the issue and for the best of reasons: there is no majority in the chambers to back them, even were ministers not divided. Chambers of commerce at home or abroad can do nothing fresh. The French legislature will not re-open the subject of the general tariff. Gambetta in his hey-day shirked the adventure, and the amiable and canny de Freycinet, has not the slightest intention to run his head against a wall.

POLITICS.

I may dispose of political matters by alluding to the commencement of hostilities between the followers of Gambetta and coalesced republicans, that form the ephemeral majority of the government. The radicals prefer working with the royalists rather than the Gambetists. The battle will take place over the budget and if that elegant construction be not voted in the lines laid down by Leon Say, the structure in falling will diminish the ministry—a fate in which not a particle of public anxiety is displayed, still less as to the difficulty of finding their successors. As usual we will drift into some ministry, for France, like the cats, always comes on her feet.

RELIGION ON THE WANE.

Attention is drawn to the fact that while England is solemnly engaged thanking providence for preserving the life of her Queen, in France the prevailing idea or movement is, to eliminate the divinity from mundane affairs. Contemporaneously with this peculiarly new social feature, is an unpleasant increase in obscene literature. It is becoming fashionable in courts of justice for jurymen and witnesses to declare themselves more than offended when asked to include God in their oaths to tell the truth. It seems they will pledge their honor and conscience—two conditions they think sufficiently binding.

THE CARNIVAL.

Thursday last was mid-Lent, and the carnival was resuscitated for twenty-four hours, when saints and sinners enjoyed the loveliest of spring days, sunshine, flowers, new life. On the Boulevards the crowd was impenetrable. There was a very extensive hiring of fancy dresses for the day; it is a strange caprice that of people to disguise themselves and indulge in antics gratintously. However, there was not much evidence of originality in the make-ups. The laundry women, who claim the day as their own just as the butchers do Good Friday, mustered very strong and had escorts composed of typical representatives of ancient and modern manners, styles and customs. The Queens of the vast laundries were on the whole not bad-looking; but then there was neither frost, sleet, nor rain to spoil their toilettes, pinch their features, nor sour their tempers; the brass band invariably played independent of all rules of harmony; krounirs were "done" well; a parody was effected of the failure of the Union Generale bank, consisting of the directors being "waked" in a pillony. The isolated attempts to represent monks, &c., met with no applause. The evening balls were very numerous.

THE COMMUNISTS

Have made extensive preparations to fete the eleventh anniversary of their defeat. The socialists and free-thinkers make common cause with the "patriots," who for a time left their country for their country's good. At all these meetings great efforts are ever made to secure the attendance of children, so the sprout of revenge will not likely die out. Deputies of the extreme radical class consider it an honor to attend where every emblem is rank sedition.

THE POLICE

Want a real princess, who has been sprung sumptuously every day by shoplifting, unaccompanied by the extenuating circumstances of kleptomania. An individual of the same school, sharing in the general belief that taking umbrellas owned by others does not come within the Decalogue, has derived a snug income by not only abstracting umbrellas from shops, but passing next day to demand his money back as the article did not please, and the ticket of the price was gummed on the handle.

At Belleville a husband and wife had a dispute during dinner; she seized her baby in its cot, took it in her arms, and rushing to the window threw herself out. Falling on a tree, a branch pierced her body like a bayonet. She was killed, but the infant was unhurt.

CRIMINALS.

France appears to have been brought to a full stop in her study of the question, what to do with her habitual criminals. They have increased, are increasing, and ought to be diminished. Unable to effectually dispose of malefactors that society has neglected, the authorities have no prison accommodation, so only the prisoners of the worst character are retained. The penitentiary establishments at Cayenne and New Caledonia are viewed as mere abysses to swallow up money. The commission occupied with the study of this important question incline to keep the gaol birds in home gaols. The majority of the criminals, being lazy, cynical and robust, would be improved by the occasional use of the cat.

A MARRIAGE

Is on the point of being celebrated between Mlle. de Fournier and M. d'Ausac. Its origin is a little romantic. The young lady and her mother were entering a railway carriage when M. d'Ausac shut the door and, previously extricating the young lady's dress. "That's a real gentleman," said she to her mamma in English. He understood, and took a seat in the same compartment, where the marriage may be said to have been arranged.

TRIFLES.

In the vote for the carrying of the obligatory secular scheme of public education, a legislator, Monsieur Dieu (God), was absent on the division. "Quite apropos," observe the friends of religious instruction.

Dying for and with the flag—A journalist lately started a newspaper in Rome. It did not succeed, so he committed suicide in consequence.

A Moor's head on a white ground is the flag of Corsican independence; when M. Feroldi was elected deputy the other day his constituents presented him with such a drapeau.

Between two little friends. — Adele—"Will you marry when you are big, Francois?" "No indeed, for papa beats my mamma too often."

EASTERN STATES.

SAN ANTONIO, April 28.—John Mitchell, of Edwards county, was tied to a tree and beaten nearly to death by his two sons, and shot to death by two men named O'Brien. The trouble is over a preemption of 80 acres of land.

KINGSVILLE, (S. C.,) April 28.—The steamer Marion exploded her boiler today. She had on board a picnic party. Minnie Henry was instantly killed. Mattie and Nannie Henry are missing, and supposed to be drowned. Lizzie Henry and J. C. Eason are not expected to recover. Wm. Trumbull is badly scalded. Minnie Bates is seriously injured. Orville Slater is supposed to be drowned. Tom Ricardson, colored, one of the crew, is drowned. John Williams, also of the crew, is severely injured.

NEW YORK, April 29.—The general merchandise markets with one or two exceptions show no improvement, and the whole movement is slow for the season. Buyers only are taking goods in such quantities as will suffice brief periods and as are needed for actual orders.

WASHINGTON, April 29. — The First Comptroller, Lawrence, signed a warrant to pay the administrator of the late President Garfield $2,672, being the balance of his salary up to his death.

The estimated reduction of the public debt for April will be about $14,000,000.

EUROPE.

Slavery Under the British Flag.

LONDON, April 29.—In the House of Commons Labouchere complained of the existence of slavery in Hongkong, on the Gold Coast, and in the Malay States and North Borneo. It is said the slave market of Hongkong supplies women to California, Australia and China. The under foreign secretary denied that the British government sanctioned slavery.

MARSEILLES, April 28.—An expedition to South Oran, Algeria, was recently surprised by Si Elman, and 40 persons were killed and 40 wounded.

BERLIN, April 29.—Four members of the crew of the Jeannette will arrive at St. Petersburg next week.

LIVERPOOL, April 28.—A leading weekly grain circular says grain remains quiet and steady. Previous prices are generally maintained.

CALIFORNIA.

Two San Francisco Suicides--Death of a Newspaper Man.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28. — Frank Schmidt, a German, aged 26 years, committed suicide this evening at the Seigfried Hotel, 228 Bush street, by shooting himself through the head with a a pistol. He lived only a few minutes. Before shooting himself Schmidt was seen scattering pieces of paper on the floor, On them was written the words: "Call on my brother-in-law, at 815 Eddy street." On his person was found the following, "Mr. Sullivan—Dear Sir: I am about to leave this glorious world to-night. Break the news to Sailie as easily as possible. She will be better off when I am gone. So good-bye to all. Frank Schmidt." No reason is assigned for the deed.

Pasquolina, wife of A. P. Vcaqueril, the proprietor of the Metropolitan Restaurant of Montgomery street, committed suicide this evening by taking a dose of strychine. She had had a slight disagreement with her husband, and went into a room in the rear of the restaurant. Some one soon after informed Mr. Vacqueril that his wife was dying. He went into the room and found her dead. Deceased was 28 years of age, and a native of France. She leaves several children. A. P. Vacqueril will be remembered as a delegate to the Constitutional Convention from this city.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—James F. Bowman, a well-known journalist, died to-day.

The Indian War in New Mexico.

LORDSBURG, (N. M.) April 27.—Solomon, of San Simons, sent a special messenger on the 27th to Guthrie's ranch, requesting him to notify all persons on Gila river that 500 White Mountian Apaches had broken out from San Carlos reservation, and were heading for Gila. A son of Capt. Lawson, who was recently killed by Indians at Gold Gulch, arrived at Guthrie from Clifton yesterday with dispatches of a similar tenor. There are 300 men at Guthrie's thoroughly fortified. A good force well fortified is located at Lightfoot ranch, a quarter of a mile below Guthrie, and active preparations are making for a vigorous defense all along the river. A great lack of ammunition is felt.

Mr. Simmons, the aeronaut who accompanied Colonel Brine in his recent attempt to cross the English Channel, in an account of the adventure, asserts that "during the voyage they could see distinctly the bottom of the Channel, with moving shoals of fish." He could see a distance of 100 miles over the North Sea.

The Irish National Newspaper Publishing Company, of whom Mr. Parnell and Mr. Egan are the chief directors, have instituted proceedings against the Irish Executive to test the legality of their action in seizing the United Ierland newspaper. The statement of claim alleges that the defendants "broke and entered" the plaintiffs' house on the 15th, 23rd, and 31st of December last, and seized a number of copies of the newapaper, and carried them away and disposed of them to their own use. There is also a claim for detaining the papers. The ground of seizure alleged at the time was that the print in question was no less than a no rent manifesto. The action has been brought in the Exchequer Division, and an appearance has been entered for the defendants. Damages are laid at £30,000.

The shrinking of the waters of Lake Constance, owing to the exraordinary dryness of the winter, has brought to light some interesting lacustrine relics near Stockboro, in canton Thurgau. Among them are bone and flint implements, harpoons, pottory, many specimens of which are intact, clubs, baskets arrows, field tools, and animal remains. Among the latter are skeletons and part skeletons of the bear, bison, and the moorhen. The find also includes a considerable quantity of oats and wheat in a good state of preservation, and a remarkably perfect and artistically executed stag-horn harpoon. The relics have all been removed to Frauenfeld and added to the collection of the local historical and natural history society.

Dr. Thomas held an inquest at St. Pancras on the body of a woman, described as Lady Agnes MacLean, aged sixty, who was found dying in the waiting-room of the St. Pancras Workhouse. It was stated that the deceased was the daughter of an English marquis, that she married the Comte de Montmorency, in Italy, and that at his death she wedded Dr. MacLean, a clergyman. Since the death of the second husband the deceased has been in great pecuniary straits, and ultimately distresses were levied on her furniture, and she herself was ejected into the streets. On the night of her ejectment she slept in a garden, and two days afterwards was found asleep in the waiting-room of the coroner's court, in King's-road. She was taken to the police court, and ordered by the magistrate to be conveyed to the Workhouse, were she died from effusion of blood on the brain. A verdict to that effect was returned.

An acrobat who styled himself "Artois, the Flying Wonder," while performing on the trapeze at music hall in Dublin met with a fatal accident. His last movement, according to his programme, was to spring from a flying trapeze to a stationay one fixed over the stage. He made the spring, and succeeded in catching the trapeze both with his hands and feet, but his hold was not firm enough, for after swinging once or twice he suddenly loosened his grasp and fell on the ground on his back and neck. There was no net or other protection under the trapeze. The injured man was conveyed to Mercer's Hospital in an unconscious state, and died ten minutes after his admission from a fearful fracture of the skull.

Mr. Samuel Langham held an adjourned inquest in Camberwell touching the death of the Rev. M. Campbell, who, it was alleged, had died from the treatment of a person who stated that he was a qualified surgeon. Mr. T. A. Smyth, after being cautioned, said he was a graduate of arts at the Queen's University of Ireland, a student of medicine at St. Thomas's Hospital, and resident medical officer to a dispensary in Kensington. He had a plate on his door with the words, "Smyth, surgeon," on it, but had taken it down since this inquiry commenced. He had no diploma as a surgeon or as a physician. The jury returned a verdict of manslaughter against Smyth, and he was given into the custody of the police. The court was crowded with medical students, and as the accused passed along the room he was pelted with eggs and assaulted.

The London Daily News thinks that more severe measures are necessary in Ireland. It thinks the time has come for the Government to strike and strike hard, but it is all the more incumbent on them to take careful aim.

The imperial Government is said to contemplate the complete disfranchisement of Sandwich and the depriving of Leilester- Macclesfield, Oxford, Gloucester, and Boston of at least one seat each in the House of Commons for corrupt practice at elections.

A remarkable bigamy case was heard at Halesowen. The defendant, a woman named Susannah Davis, became much attached to a lodger, and her husband, with whom she had been living for twenty-nine years, paid for the banns for his wife and lodger to be married. After the wedding ceremony the lawful husband was turned out of the house. The accused was committed for trial.

The Queen's Bench has had before it the report of one of the Masters upon the proceedings of Mr. W. H. Brown, a solicitor. It was shown that he had received money amounting to upwards of £17,000 from various clients to invest for them, but that he had applied the money to his own purpose; and when his affairs went into liquidation his estate paid only 5s. in the pound. In ordering that his name should be struck off the rolls, Mr. Justice Grove said the punishment, which was the greatest they could inflict, was inadequate.

Mr. Carter held an inquest in Camberwell concerning the death of Miss Elsabeth Oliver, aged sixty-three years, of no fixed abode, who was found dead in a wine-cellar at No. 1 Elm Grove, Rye Lane, Peckham, on the 17th inst. Mr. Hugh Rose said he took possession of the house in Elm Grove on Friday evening last, and finding the door of the wine-cellar locked inside, he forced the door with a hatchet. He then notice the body of a woman doubled up in the cellar, which was only a yard square, with a silk umblella lying by her side. Mr. James Oliver said that three years ago the deceased had been in partnership with him in the Berlin wool trade and fancy business at Alexandra terrace, Nunhead, Peckham. Deceased met with an accident in 1879, when she fell into a cutting. Witness thought that she had been walking about the streets of London without means of obtaining any substenance or employment. Dr. Philps, the Divisional Surgeon of Peckham, said he believed the deceased had been dead for more than ten days. Having made a post-mortem examination, he came to the conclusion that death resulted from starvation. A verdict to that effect was returned.

It is seldom that those assassins of character, as Mr. Justice Lopes called them, the libellous writers of anonymous letters, are so neatly caught as was the defendant in the case of Newman v. Goodwin. With a view to damage a trade rival Goodwin wrote anonymously to certain manufacturers warning them to be "careful" in supplying goods to Newman, as he (Goodwin) would be "sorrey" to see them suffer, and he was "shure" the plaintiff could not stand long. Such interested advice provoked suspicion. On an action for libel, experts and acquaintances swore the letters were in Goodwin's handwriting, but experts have often been deceived, and Goodwin "swore off." But he was convicted out of his own mouth, by spelling "careful" "cairful," and "sorry" "sorrey," in the witness-box. His bad spelling cost him £400 damages, and will probably lead to a further acquaintance with the evil results of imperfect education accompanied by imperfect notions of what constitutes fair trade competition.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S
CHLORODYNE

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

Advice to Invalids—If you wish to obtain quiet, refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and anguish, to calm and assuage the weary aching of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous media, and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by Dr. J. Collis Browne (late Army Medical Staff), to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation, and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Menin itis, &c.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, January 5th, 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russell street, Bloomsbury, London. Dear Sir,—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly esteemed medicine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Cholera or Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a DELIBERATE BREACH OF FAITH ON THE PART OF THE CHEMIST TO PRESCRIBER AND PATIENT ALIKE. We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the Inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, which, he regretted to say, had been sworn to.—See "The Times," July 13, 1864.

Sold in bottles at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9., 4s 6d. and 11s. each. None is genuine without the words "Dr. J Collis Browne's, Chlorodyne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

Caution—Beware of Piracy and Imitations.
